NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

Electronic Transcript Authenticity

The official transcript displays a blue ribbon on the notification bar across the top of the Adobe Reader, the University Watermark, Registrar Signature. (Older versions of the Adobe reader may display the blue ribbon as a pop-up screen and in the lower left corner of the frame of the application.)

Certified Signature

The blue ribbon symbol is your assurance that the digital signature is valid, authentic, and the contents of the document have not been altered.

Invalid Signature

If the PDF displays a red X, this means the signature has an invalid certification or the document has been altered. The PDF transcript should be rejected and please contact the University to validate the students transcript credentials.

Problematic Signature

If the PDF displays a caution sign, this means the that the document was modified after the signature was added. The PDF transcript should be rejected and please contact the University to validate the students transcript credentials.

The Electronic Transcript is not meant for printing purposes. A printed copy of an electronic transcript is not considered official and will not be validated.

Please note that some pre-digital records have sensitive information redacted, such as a social security number. These fields have the word "Redacted" printed in red.

If you have any additional questions regarding the authenticity of this transcript, you may email or call the University.

Accreditation

New York University is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education as a degree granting institution at the baccalaureate, master's, professional, and doctoral levels. The Tandon School of Engineering undergraduate programs in civil, computer, chemical, electrical and mechanical engineering; and NYU Abu Dhabi undergraduate programs in civil, computer, electrical, general, and mechanical engineering are accredited by the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET).

The University includes the following schools and colleges listed in order of their founding.

1832	College of Arts and Science
1835	School of Law
1841	Grossman School of Medicine
1865	College of Dentistry
1886	Graduate School of Arts and Science
1890	Steinhardt School of Culture, Education, and Human Development
1900	Leonard N. Stern School of Business
1934	School of Professional Studies
1938	Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Services
1948	Post-graduate Medical School
1960	Silver School of Social Work
1965	Tisch School of the Arts
1963	Mount Sinai School of Medicine (affiliated July 1, 1999)

English is the language of instruction at all NYU campuses, including Abu Dhabi and Shanghai. New York University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity institution.

Release of Information

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, this information is released on the condition that no other party will be permitted access to this information without the written consent of the student.

Academic Calendar

The University operates on a semester calendar, consisting of a standard fall and spring semester, and with summer and winter intersessions of varying lengths.

Transcript Validation

New York University began the implementation of a new academic record system in 1990. The record of a student enrolled both before and after implementation may be composed of two separately formatted transcripts. If the notation "SEPARATE RECORD OF PRIOR WORK ATTACHED" appears on the top of the computer-generated transcript, both transcript formats must be present for the record to be complete.

All transcripts issued from this office are official documents. A computer-generated transcript is printed on tamperproof paper, eliminating the need for signatures, raised seals, or stamps on the back of envelopes.

Credit System

Credits/points/units are equal to semester hours. One credit/point/unit is equal to one semester hour.

Grading System

Note: Includes grades awarded by all schools/divisions of the University except the College of Dentistry, School of Law, Schools of Medicine, and Stern School of Business - Graduate Division. A specific grade may not be valid in a particular school or division.

TO TEST FOR AUTHENTICITY: Translucent globe icons MUST be visible from both sides when held toward a light source. The face of this document has a purple background, a purple facsimile signature of the University Registrar, and the name of the institution, which appears in white type. Apply liquid bleach to the sample background printed below. If authentic, the paper will turn color.

Note: Precomputer transcripts are black and white and will have a raised seal and signature of the University Registrar.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY • NEW YORK UNIVERSITY • NEW YORK UNIVERSITY • NEW YORK UNIVERSITY • NEW YORK UNIVERSITY • NEW YORK UNIVERSITY • NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

ADDITIONAL TESTS: The institutional name and the word VOID appear on alternate rows as a latent image. When this paper is touched by fresh liquid bleach, an authentic document will stain brown. A black and white or color copy of this document is not an original and should not be accepted as an official institutional document. This document cannot be released to a third party without the written consent of the student. This is in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. If you have any questions about this document, please contact our office. ALTERATION OF THIS DOCUMENT MAY BE A CRIMINAL OFFENSE!

Current and Cumulative Statistics

AHRS	Attempted Hours
EHRS	Earned Hours
QHRS	Quality Hours
QPTS	Quality Points

Grade Point Average (GPA)

The GPA is computed by dividing the total number of quality points (QPTS) by the total number of quality hours (QHRS).

Computer-generated records that carry cumulative academic statistics reflecting work completed prior to the implementation of the new record carry the notation "++INCLUDES PRECOMPUTER STATISTICS".

Course Prefixes

The alpha character preceding the course number designates the division of the University that offers the courses.

New York University Abu Dhabi

NYU official transcripts for undergraduate students enrolled at NYU Abu Dhabi do not show course grades received during their first year of study, and instead indicate only those courses successfully completed. Courses successfully (C- or better) completed during an undergraduate student's first year of study carry the "SC" notation. Neither term nor cumulative GPA is recorded on the official transcript for NYU Abu Dhabi undergraduate students before graduation. Upon degree conferral, a final cumulative GPA will be recorded.
